

2022 PAR Awards

Listed below are the categories and criteria for the annual PAR awards presented this year at the November Virtual Awards Luncheon. Please refer to this information and carefully note the criteria when making your nomination. Please note the Humanitarian Brokerage Award is the only PAR award where self-nominations are accepted.

Golden Service Award

For faithful, long-term service to the Pensacola Association of REALTORS® spanning a minimum of ten years.

Humanitarian Brokerage Award

The nominee should be a Brokerage Firm that has demonstrated exemplary involvement in a community project or charity in which a majority of the Brokerage's members participated.

Humanitarian Realtor® Award

The nominee should be a Realtor® that has demonstrated exemplary involvement in a community project or charity.

Rising Star of the Year

The nominee should be newly licensed in Real Estate (within the past two years). He/she should have participated in 15 closed transaction sides within the previous twenty four months. The nominee should have demonstrated involvement in the Association and its programs by attendance/participation in at least one of the following activities:

- Attendance at Monthly Membership Luncheons
- Committee Attendance
- Participation in Fund Raising Activities
- Any other contributing effort to Association programs

Affiliate of the Year

The nominee should be a current member who has contributed outstanding service and time on behalf of the Association within a twelve month period, and demonstrates a commitment and/or made exemplary contribution through voluntary work in areas of leadership within the Association structure.

Property Manager of the Year Award

Must be a licensed real estate professional engaged in property management; must have managed a minimum of 50 units for at least two years; has exhibited the highest professional and ethical standards; must be actively involved on a PAR committee.

Property Appraiser of the Year Award

Must be a state registered, state certified residential real estate appraiser of a state certified general real estate appraiser; must have been in appraising for a minimum of two (2) years; must have performed a minimum of fifty (50) appraisals within the last twenty four months; has exhibited the highest professional and ethical standards; has made a substantial contribution of time and effort to improve the property appraiser industry; must be actively involved on a PAR committee.

REALTOR® of the Year Award

Nominees must be REALTOR® members in good standing with the Pensacola Association of REALTORS® who have demonstrated exemplary service in some or all of the Activities shown below during the previous twelve months.

1. Local Board Activity: 55 points
2. State Association Activity: 5 points
3. National Association Activity: 5 points
4. Civic Activity: 35 points